

Father's Day Poetry

Father's Day is a time when people say thank you to dads, grandads, uncles, brothers, friends and other special people in their lives.

What does your special person do for you?

What special things do you do together?

Dear Daddy

You sew my buttons on my clothes,
You give me a tissue for my nose.
You make good things for me to eat,
You buy me sweets for a treat.
You wash my clothes and mend my socks,
Dear Daddy, I love you lots and lots!

Dear Grandad

You sew my buttons on my clothes,
You give me a tissue for my nose.
You make good things for me to eat,
You buy me sweets for a treat.
You wash my clothes and mend my socks,
Dear Grandad, I love you lots and lots!

Dear Uncle

You sew my buttons on my clothes,
You give me a tissue for my nose.
You make good things for me to eat,
You buy me sweets for a treat.
You wash my clothes and mend my socks,
Dear Uncle, I love you lots and lots!

Dear Brother

You picked me up that time I fell,
You sat with me 'til I felt well.
You cheer me up when I feel down,
You make me laugh, just like a clown.
You play games with me and we have fun,
You help tidy up when we are done.
Dear brother, you are the best.

Dear Friend

We make up our own games and have lots of fun,
We joke, we laugh, we skip, we run.
You tell me stories and make me jump,
You help me tidy my room when it's a dump!
You make me smile just by being you,
I hope that I'm a great friend too!

Task

You have got two choices for your poem.

1. You can write a poem for your special person, thinking about what this person does for you and the special things you do together.
(You could try to make your poem rhyme.)
2. You can write an acrostic poem.
